

THE B. & O. SCHEDULE.

The Committee will Meet Vice President Lord to-day.

TELEGRAM RECEIVED YESTERDAY

In Answer to that of President Quarrier, Sent Saturday—General Passenger Agent Scull Explains the Proposed New Arrangement, which he Does not Think is so Bad after All.

Yesterday President Quarrier received the following telegram from Baltimore, which explains itself:

BALTIMORE, Md., May 8, 1893.

My message of May 6 received this morning. I am obliged to leave for the west to-night and will be absent all the week. Otherwise I would be glad to see your committee here. I understand from your general manager that he has been able to make such modifications in the proposed schedules as will in a great measure meet the wishes of the post-office department as well as the passenger papers. If you will write me, care of my agent at Fairmont, I shall be glad to take the matter up with our division superintendent at that point to-morrow, and will try and see you the latter part of the week. Answer. C. K. Lord.

Instead of answering by mail, Mr. Quarrier saw the members of the sub-committee to consult with Mr. Lord, Messrs. Speidel and Heiskell and Capt. Devries, and arranged that they should go to Fairmont and meet him personally. If he stops off there they will have an opportunity to confer with him, while if he comes on west they will accompany him to the river and lay their case before him. President Quarrier will accompany them.

In a letter to other Wheeling parties who complained of the proposed new schedule, General Passenger Agent Charles O. Scull said the company would be glad to run an early train out of Wheeling, and would if it could afford to run it for newspaper and package express, but having to combine passenger traffic, trains must be run at hours which suited travelers. Mr. Scull also says:

"I believe you are not entirely posted as to the proposed changes. In reality they will amount to very little. Wheeling will have just as much train service as she had before. The principal change will be caused by sending the through Chicago express trains, No. 5 and 6, by way of Pittsburgh and Akron instead of by way of Grafton and Bellaire, as now, but No. 5 will have connection at Pittsburgh for Wheeling, and passengers can get from Cumberland and any point east thereof to Wheeling on this train via Pittsburgh, arriving at Wheeling not much later in the evening than now. There will also be a connection from Wheeling via Pittsburgh for No. 6, which will accommodate travel to Cumberland and the east. A new train will be put on between Grafton and Chicago, to be known as No. 3 and 4, leaving Grafton after breakfast, Wheeling about noon, and arriving at Chicago at 6:30 next morning. East bound train No. 4 will leave Wheeling between 2 and 3 p. m. No. 14 and 15 will continue to run between Wheeling and Chicago as now. No. 8, eastbound, instead of leaving Wheeling at 12:25, midnight, will leave at 3:05 a. m., and No. 78, the Cumberland accommodation, instead of leaving at 8:05 a. m., will leave at 7 a. m."

POTTERY ACCIDENT.

A Boy Hurt at the Warwick Yesterday Morning.

Walter Johnson, a seventeen-year-old boy employed at the Warwick pottery, on the South Side, was badly hurt yesterday morning. He was carrying a box of pottery ware from one part of the establishment to another, when he stumbled and fell down the elevator shaft to the ground floor, a distance of about twelve or fifteen feet. The fall rendered him insensible, and it was some time before it was discovered that the boy had been hurt. Dr. Campbell was summoned and made an examination; it was found that the boy had been badly bruised, but it is not thought that he received any internal injuries. He was taken in a wagon to his home on the South Side.

A Wheeling Man Hurt.

A man was found lying on the Baltimore & Ohio platform at Newark Sunday bleeding and almost insensible. He was cared for and gave his name as J. J. Riley, of Wheeling, and says that he and his mother were on their way to Chicago. Shortly before arriving at Newark he went into the smoking car, where he fell asleep and was not awakened to change cars. Near Union station he woke up, and in a bewildered condition ran to the door and leaped from the train while it was running at full speed. He was severely injured, but managed to crawl to the platform, where he was found.

Drowned in Florida.

Intelligence was yesterday received in the city of the drowning of George, the five-year-old son of Rev. King Pendleton, of Pittsburgh. The sad accident happened in Florida, where the child was staying with his grandfather, Prof. W. K. Pendleton, the venerable ex-president of Bethany college. Just how it occurred was not known here, but he was drowned in a lake in the rear of Prof. Pendleton's premises. Mrs. Pendleton, the boy's mother, is a daughter of Mr. Eliza Paxton, of Wellsburg. The bereavement is peculiarly sad, and the family have the deepest sympathy.

Sued for Counsel Fees.

When the recent street car troubles were on, the union employed Col. Arnett, Mr. J. A. Howard and Mr. M. D. Post to defend its interests and members. After the troubles were over the lawyers could not collect their fees, and they brought suit in Squire Arkle's court for $300 on that account. The case was set for trial yesterday, but was then postponed until May 17. It is said there may be developments of a rather sensational character when the union's finances are examined into.

World's Columbian Exposition

Will be of value to the world by illustrating the improvements in the mechanical arts and eminent physicians will tell you that the progress in medicinal agents has been of equal importance, and as a strengthening laxative that Syrup of Figs is far in advance of all others.

The program for the Jr. O. U. A. M. entertainment at the Opera house

Wednesday evening, will be a novel one, and includes gymnastics and boxing.

Geo. M. Snook & Co.'s great reduction

MRS. CARTER ARRESTED.

She is Now at Her Uncle's Home—she Says She Did Not Elope.

Mrs. W. A. Carter, nee Aggie Post, of West Alexander, whose alleged elopement was chronicled yesterday, was found by Constable Anderson yesterday at Bonwood, and arraigned before Squire Arkle, who put her under bond for her appearance hereafter. She at once left for home with her uncle, Mr. W. T. Chambers, of Elm Grove. Captain Dovecer is her counsel.

Timmons, with whom she left West Alexander, has not been seen since. Mrs. Carter denies that she eloped. She says she feared violence at her husband's hands, and fled for safety.

The story is that Timmons recently had quite a sum of money left him, and that he went to Ohio to get it. The sensation shortly after Miss Post married Carter will be remembered in Wheeling. A woman whom Carter then deserted accused the newly married pair of a felony, but the grand jury ignored the bill.

The Washington, Pa., Observer adds to the story of the escapade of Sunday this view from the West Alexander standpoint:

"The quiet village of West Alexander was thrown into a state of great excitement Sunday morning by a sensational elopement, and not for many a day have the youths had such meat for food. The first intimation of anything having occurred which was out of the usual order was when William Carter, a well known farmer residing one mile east of the town, came driving frantically almost into the village in a dog cart and carrying a shot gun. He informed his friends that at 5 o'clock that morning his wife and 'Jack' Timmons, who for a year has been a firm hand at Mr. Carter's place, had eloped, and that he had learned they went in the direction of Wheeling. He swore he would kill Timmons if he caught him, and those who saw the determined look of mingled pain and rage depicted on his countenance believed that he would keep his word. He stayed in town but a short time, and it was with many misgivings that his friends saw him depart in the direction of the Nail city. Every hour some dreadful news was expected, and many people were greatly relieved when in the afternoon Mr. Carter returned with the information that he could not find the runaways.

"Mrs. Carter is described as a handsome young woman of about twenty-one years, while her husband has seen the snows of perhaps fifty winters. She has heretofore been a dutiful wife, and the couple have been married about two years, one child having been the result of the union. Mrs. Carter has always been treated well, so it is said, by her husband, and his strange actions cannot be accounted for. Timmons is unmarried and aged about twenty-seven years. He is not particularly handsome, though is rather a prepossessing looking young man."

WONGO, THE INDIAN SLUGGER.

His Athletic Combination to be Seen here Saturday Night.

Yesterday arrangements were made by which Wongo & Daly's athletic combination will appear at the Opera House next Saturday night, under the auspices of the Mark Twain Rod and Gun club. Mike Howley, the well known local pugilist, will be master of ceremonies, and in the several sparring bouts, the stakes of the Coney Island club will be used. The main feature, of course, will be Wongo's sparring. He claims to be the champion welter weight, and though but 22 years old, has fought a number of fights and never lost one. He is a Mohican Indian. Prof. Dan Daly will also appear in the ring with a local heavy weight, and there will be fine wrestling, club swinging and a contortion act. Seats will be put on sale at House's music store to-morrow.

J. B. Smith, who was assaulted by Hum Campbell Saturday night, was able to be at his office yesterday, and he filed a complaint before Mayor McGowan against his assailant and a warrant was issued for Campbell. He is now recuperating in Benwood. It developed yesterday that Campbell had called on the mayor Saturday to find out how much it would cost him "to do a man up." The mayor told him that kind of thing could not be judged in advance, and endeavored to find out who he wanted "done up," but Campbell was reticent on that point.

Hon. Ross J. Alexander was in the city yesterday and was being congratulated by numerous friends, though he has not yet been appointed to office. On Saturday Hon. A. W. Machew, of Toledo, was appointed assistant superintendent of the free delivery system by Mr. Bissell and this leaves the way clear for Mr. Alexander for the third assistant postmaster generalship.

Squire D. W. Cooper yesterday heard the case of Edward Brooks against the Bellaire Nail Works Company for $20, Brooks claiming that a $20 bill he received in his pay some time ago was counterfeit, and had been returned to him. The squire decided in Brooks' favor.

There are a number of oil men cavorting around this section now and they have leased most of the land from this city to Glouco, going south and west and taking in farms in Mead, Richland and Smith townships. Three test wells are to be put down at once.

There is a strong call from different parts of the county to have the Republican county convention called before the state convention, so that the Republicans of the county may have a voice in the selection of delegates to the state convention.

There was an interesting temperance meeting at the South Bellaire M. E. church last night at which Messrs. Bates and Giffon discussed the signs of the times. The discussion varied the usual monotony of such meetings.

All of the Knights Templar of this city will attend the ascension day service at St. Clairsville Thursday, provided it is on the C. L. & W. can be secured to return home that night.
